

TAUBMAN SYMPOSIA
in Jewish Studies at UCSB

11 22 2020

Free and open to the public.

Yehonatan Indursky

The Making of Shtisel

A conversation with Yehonatan Indursky, led by Dr. Mashey Bernstein.

Yehonatan Indursky is the co-creator of the popular Israeli TV series, Shtisel, which offers a window into ultra-Orthodox Jews in Israel. Indursky was raised in an ultra-Orthodox home in Jerusalem and was educated at the prestigious Ponevez Yeshivah in Bnei Brak. In this conversation, the award-winning filmmaker and screenwriter will discuss his Orthodox home, the inspiration for Shtisel, and how the series changed his relationship with his home and the Orthodox community. Indursky will be joined by Dr. Mashey Bernstein, who has written extensively on Jewish aspects of the media. Bernstein, an award-winning journalist, has taught at UC Santa Barbara and has chaired the Santa Barbara Jewish Film Festival.

Sunday
November 22, 2020
10:00 a.m.

Connect on Zoom:
ucsb.zoom.us/j/96245718570

Co-sponsored by the Carsey-Wolf Center, and the Department of Film Studies

For further information contact:

Richard D. Hecht
ariel@religion.ucsb.edu

Maeve Devoy
maeve@cappscenter.ucsb.edu
(805) 893-2317

taubman.ucsb.edu

שלו יעסוק לימד הוא שוכח